El Pícaro Roble (Toro)

The Producer

Matsu is more than a winery or a wine. It is a modern project of sustainable viticulture that brings forth an exclusive collection of high expression wines. Matsu, a Japanese word meaning "to wait" perfectly defines an initiative that connects the original culture and its care of the natural world with the most advanced techniques of biodynamic agriculture of the rural European zones. Matsu elaborates in very limited productions and in exclusivity of its modern, high expression wines. With clean, visually impacting and elegant aesthetics, Matsu transmits its values with the help of images that are sincere and direct. And in a similar manner, its trilogy of wines "El Picaro", "El Recio" and "El Viejo" of Matsu, are represented by real people that dedicate their lives to rural farm life.

"El Picaro" continues to pay a tribute to the viticulturists that have dedicated their lives to the vineyards. Selection of 90 years old vineyards of limited production situated in poor soil and cultivated using the biodynamic techniques.

Tasting Notes

This wine has a great robe and profound color - an expression of its young age. It has an intense aroma in which one can find dark fruits such as blackberries and blueberries, mineral notes also appear, creating a fresh wine with complexity. In the mouth fruitful sensations dominate and a full body. Pleasant lickerish sensations are contributed by the maturity of the grapes from which this wine is made.
