

Lopez de Haro Gran Reserva

The Producer

Vintae has its origin in the passion for wine of José Miguel Arambarri Terrero, a businessman from La Rioja who in 1999 decided to return to family origins, recovering the Small Grain Muscat in La Rioja which had disappeared due to phylloxera. His vision of him gave rise to Castillo de Maetierra and Maetierra Dominum, the two wineries that were the origin of Vintae and where we began to elaborate Libalis. With the incorporation of his two sons, Richi and José Miguel, Vintae became what it is today.

Tasting Notes

A true mosaic of spices, which makes it enormously complex. A sweeter and more primary background also stands out, with notes of ripe fruit compote and a interesting touch of licorice. It shows velvety tannins, the result of its slow evolution in the long period of aging. The good acidity that it preserves balances all its tour through the mouth. With an enveloping character, it says goodbye with a very elegant and harmonious finish.
