

Volver

The Producer

Located at the southeast of Cuenca province, in the town of Casas de Los Pinos, at an average of 600/700 meters above sea level, influenced by an extreme continental climate and surrounded by pine forests and underbrush, all of them factors that form an exceptional shield for vines' health, circumstances that allow a cultivation with minimal interventions, environmentally friendly.

General Information

Type of wine: Still Red wine
Alcohol Content: 14%
Grape Variety: Tempranillo
Origin: La Mancha
Vinification: 14 months in new and second vintage French oak Burgundy and Bordelaise barrels.

Tasting Notes

On the nose, it unfurls a spectrum of scents where redcurrants, blackberries, and hints of dark fruits predominate, interwoven with nuances of tobacco and licorice. On the palate, it displays its full body and distinctive character with flavors of ripe fruit that envelop the senses. Its complexity and velvety texture lead to an extended, focused finish, beckoning for another taste.
